Temer protests erupt in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — A general strike disrupted major cities across Brazil on Friday as union workers protested President Michel Temer's proposal to loosen labor rules and trim pension benefits.

In Sao Paulo, protesters blocked some of the city's main roads and high-Mohammed Al Thani said Saturday.

The small Persian Gulf emirate is prepared to let pass the deadline for complying with 13 demands set down by four nations in the region. The demands include closing the Al Jazeera television network and cutting back ties with Iran, Al Thani said Saturday in Rome, where he met with his Italian counterpart.

"There is no fear from our direction. We are ready to face the consequences," Al Thani said. "There is an international law that should be respected and not violated."

Al Thani repeated that Qatar is willing to negotiate under the right circumstances. He said he is tolerant attitude to Iran and support for Islamist groups. The group's demands also include severing relations with the Muslim Brotherhood and ending Turkey's military presence in the country. Qatar was given 10 days to respond.

Al Thani, in turn, accused the blocking nations of having ties to groups and individuals accused of terrorism.

"As for the countries that accuse Qatar of financing terrorism, they have the same problems as Qatar, more so, they are on top of the list in that area," he said.

"There are financial institutes in these countries involved in financing terror-
