Heavy-Duty Gun Safe

Follow up/Clarifications to the Questions and Concerns received from Pacific Resolution Corp. on October 6, 2026.

1. We highly suggest that if anyone were to get a safe, it would either be a mechanical combination dial or an electronic keypad with key override. Would GPD be willing to consider electronic keypads but only if it has an override key? In our opinion, this option is a very efficient product for quick access while ensuring access should the electronics malfunction for any reason.

Response: GPD has decided to keep the mechanical combination dial. Specifications remain the same.
